The Rise of the Unabomber

Ted Kaczynski, a former university mathematician, became the Unabomber in the late 1970s. Over nearly two decades, he orchestrated a series of bombings targeting individuals involved with modern technology and industrial advancements. His attacks were meticulously planned, with the intent of drawing attention to his philosophical beliefs.

Motivations and Philosophical Underpinnings

Kaczynski's worldview was heavily influenced by a critique of technological progress, which he believed was detrimental to human freedom and environmental sustainability. His manifesto reflects a radical critique of industrialization, automation, and the societal structures promoting technological growth at the expense of nature and individual autonomy.

Development of the Manifesto

Between 1978 and 1995, while orchestrating his bombing campaign, Kaczynski composed the manifesto as a comprehensive critique of modern civilization. The document was meant to serve as a blueprint for understanding the destructive effects of technological systems on human well-being. --
