Origins and Foundations of the Abraham Hicks 22 Processes

Who is Esther Hicks and What is Abraham?

Esther Hicks, along with her late husband Jerry Hicks, began sharing teachings on the Law of Attraction in the 1980s. Through a process of channeling, Esther communicates messages from a non-physical collective consciousness called Abraham. Abraham emphasizes that individuals are creators of their reality through vibrational alignment and focused intention.

What Are the 22 Processes?

The 22 Processes are a series of guided techniques formulated by Abraham to facilitate vibrational shifts. They are designed to be performed sequentially or selectively, depending on individual needs. Each process aims to help practitioners release negative beliefs, improve their mood, and align more closely with their desires.

Understanding the Core Principles Behind the Processes

Vibration and the Law of Attraction

At the heart of the 22 Processes lies the Law of Attraction—the idea that like attracts like. Your predominant vibration determines the experiences you draw into your life. The processes serve as tools to elevate and maintain a high vibrational state, making manifestation more effortless.

Emotional Guidance Scale

Abraham teaches that emotions are indicators of vibrational alignment. Negative emotions signal resistance, while positive feelings indicate alignment. The processes are designed to help you move up the emotional scale, from frustration or doubt toward joy and appreciation.

Deliberate Creation

The ultimate goal of these processes is to foster deliberate creation—intentionally directing your thoughts and feelings to manifest desired outcomes. They emphasize that you are the creator of your reality and that shifting your focus can change your life.

Detailed Breakdown of the 22 Processes

Each process has its unique focus and methodology. Below is an in-depth exploration of each:

Process 1: "The Magical Hour" (or "The 17 Seconds")

Purpose: To align your vibration with your desire by focusing on positive aspects of your life. Method: Spend 17 seconds thinking about something you appreciate or desire. The idea is to create a vibrational "magnetic pull" that attracts similar energy. Analysis: This process emphasizes the importance of focused attention and the power of brief, intentional thought. It's a foundational technique for beginners.

Process 2: "Segment Intending"

Purpose: To set clear intentions for each segment of your day. Method: Before starting any activity, consciously intend how you want that segment to go, aligning your thoughts and feelings accordingly. Analysis: Segment intending helps maintain vibrational consistency, preventing drift into negative emotions and establishing a deliberate rhythm for manifestation.

Process 3: "The Rampage of Appreciation"

Purpose: To raise your vibration through genuine appreciation. Method: List as many things as possible that you appreciate, focusing on positive aspects of your life or desires. Analysis: Appreciation is one of the highest vibrational states. This process activates feelings of abundance and shifts focus away from lack.

Process 4: "The Audience"

Purpose: To gain clarity and emotional relief by imagining an audience that is witnessing your success. Method: Visualize a supportive audience cheering you on as you achieve a desired outcome. Analysis: This technique leverages social validation and positive visualization to boost confidence and feelings of deservingness.

Process 5: "The Perfect Day"

Purpose: To mentally simulate a day where everything unfolds perfectly. Method: Visualize in detail your ideal day, including how you feel, what you do, and how others respond. Analysis: This process helps align your vibrational energy with the feelings of success and fulfillment, making those experiences more likely to manifest.

Process 6: "The Focus Wheel"

Purpose: To shift a negative belief into a positive one. Method: Write a central belief you want to change and surround it with positive affirmations and visualizations that support the new belief. Analysis: The focus wheel is a powerful tool for resolving internal conflicts and realigning core beliefs with your desires.

Process 7: "The Art of Allowing"

Purpose: To cultivate a state of non-resistance and trust in the universe. Method: Practice surrender and patience, allowing your desires to manifest without forcing or over-controlling. Analysis: Allowing is a cornerstone of Abraham's teachings, emphasizing the importance of detachment and trust.

Process 8: "The Energy Bubble"

Purpose: To protect your vibrational energy from external influences. Method: Visualize surrounding yourself with a protective, luminous bubble that filters out negative energies. Analysis: This process fosters energetic boundaries, helping maintain high vibrations amidst challenging environments.

Process 9: "Segmented Appreciation" (Multiple Segment Appreciations)

Purpose: To consistently elevate your vibration by appreciating different parts of your life. Method: Break your day into segments and find things to appreciate in each. Analysis: Reinforces the habit of gratitude and keeps your vibration consistently high.

Process 10: "The Process of Pivoting"

Purpose: To shift from negative to positive thoughts smoothly. Method: When experiencing a negative thought or emotion, intentionally pivot to a positive or neutral thought. Analysis:

Pivoting is a practical way to regain control over your emotional state and vibrational frequency.

Process 11: "The Vortex" Visualization

Purpose: To connect with the vibrational "Vortex" where desires are instantly manifested.

Method: Visualize yourself already in possession of your desire, feeling the emotions associated with it. Analysis: This process aligns with Abraham's teaching that aligning with your desire in the Vortex accelerates manifestation.

Process 12: "The Appreciative Pause"

Purpose: To pause and appreciate the present moment before moving forward. Method: Take a moment to feel grateful and appreciative of your current life or progress. Analysis: Cultivates a mindset of sufficiency, reducing resistance and attracting more abundance.

Process 13: "The Manifestation Strip" (or "The Future Self")

Purpose: To connect with your future self who has already achieved your desires. Method: Visualize and communicate with your future self for guidance and inspiration. Analysis: This process uses the idea of alignment across time, fostering confidence and clarity.

Purpose: To deepen feelings of gratitude throughout the day. Method: Identify and feel grateful for specific aspects or achievements, one at a time. Analysis: Multi-point gratitude sustains positive energy and reinforces abundance.

Process 16: "The Elevator Ride"

Purpose: To quickly shift from negative to positive emotion. Method: Imagine taking an elevator to a higher emotional level when feeling low. Analysis: A quick mental shift that resets your vibrational state, making manifestation smoother.
