Arguably the most famous part of the speech, this segment paints a vivid picture of racial harmony:

> "I have a dream that one day every valley shall be engulfed, every hill shall be exalted and every mountain shall be made low, the rough places will be made plains, and the crooked places will be made straight; 'And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all flesh shall see it together.'"

King's repetitive use of "I have a dream" emphasizes hope and vision, creating a rhythmic and memorable structure.
