If you're unfamiliar, an acrostic poem is a form of poetry where the first letter of each line spells out a word or message vertically. Understanding the Acrostic Poem as a Literary Device

An acrostic poem is a composition in which the first letter of each line spells out a word or message when read vertically. This form has been utilized historically to convey hidden meanings, mnemonic devices, or thematic emphasis. In the context of the Cold War, the acrostic poem becomes a powerful narrative tool, allowing the complex dynamics of the period to be communicated through carefully chosen words and imagery aligned with each letter of the phrase "COLD WAR."
