The Cyborg as a Metaphor Haraway introduces the figure of the cyborg as a symbol of: Hybrid identities that combine biological and technological elements Subversion of gender stereotypes and oppressive social norms A challenge to traditional humanism, emphasizing a posthuman perspective This metaphor allows us to rethink ourselves not as fixed entities but as continually evolving entities integrated with technology. Feminism and Politics The manifesto advocates for a cyborg feminism—an inclusive, non-binary approach to gender and identity that resists essentialism. Haraway emphasizes that: Feminism should embrace technology and hybrid identities to overcome oppressive structures Science and technology can be used as tools for emancipation, not just domination The future is open-ended, with identities fluid and constantly renegotiated
