Written during the 1980s, a period marked by political upheaval, the play reflects Pinter's concerns about authoritarianism, torture, and the human capacity for cruelty. Plot Overview of One for the Road One for the Road is set in an unspecified dictatorship, where a dictatorial figure presides over a sinister interrogation. The play depicts a brutal scene where a young woman and a man are subjected to psychological and physical torment. The play begins with a man, referred to as the "interrogator," speaking to a woman, who is his victim.
