Introduction: The Context and Origins of the Script

The Fear and Misery of the Third Reich script is a transcription of a series of interviews conducted by the German playwright Rainer Werner Fassbinder in 1974. These interviews involved over 50 individuals—survivors, former Nazis, and ordinary Germans—who shared their personal experiences and reflections on life under Hitler's regime. The script was developed as a theatrical adaptation, aiming to portray the multifaceted realities of life during the Third Reich through firsthand accounts. The script emerged during a period when German society was attempting to process the horrors of the Nazi era. - Fassbinder's Motivation: Fassbinder, a prominent figure in New German Cinema, sought to create a work that would serve as a reminder and warning, emphasizing the importance of memory and accountability. - Source Material: The interviews were meticulously transcribed, preserving the raw voices of those who experienced or were complicit in the Nazi regime.
